

AASHTO Tribal Liaison Community of Practice

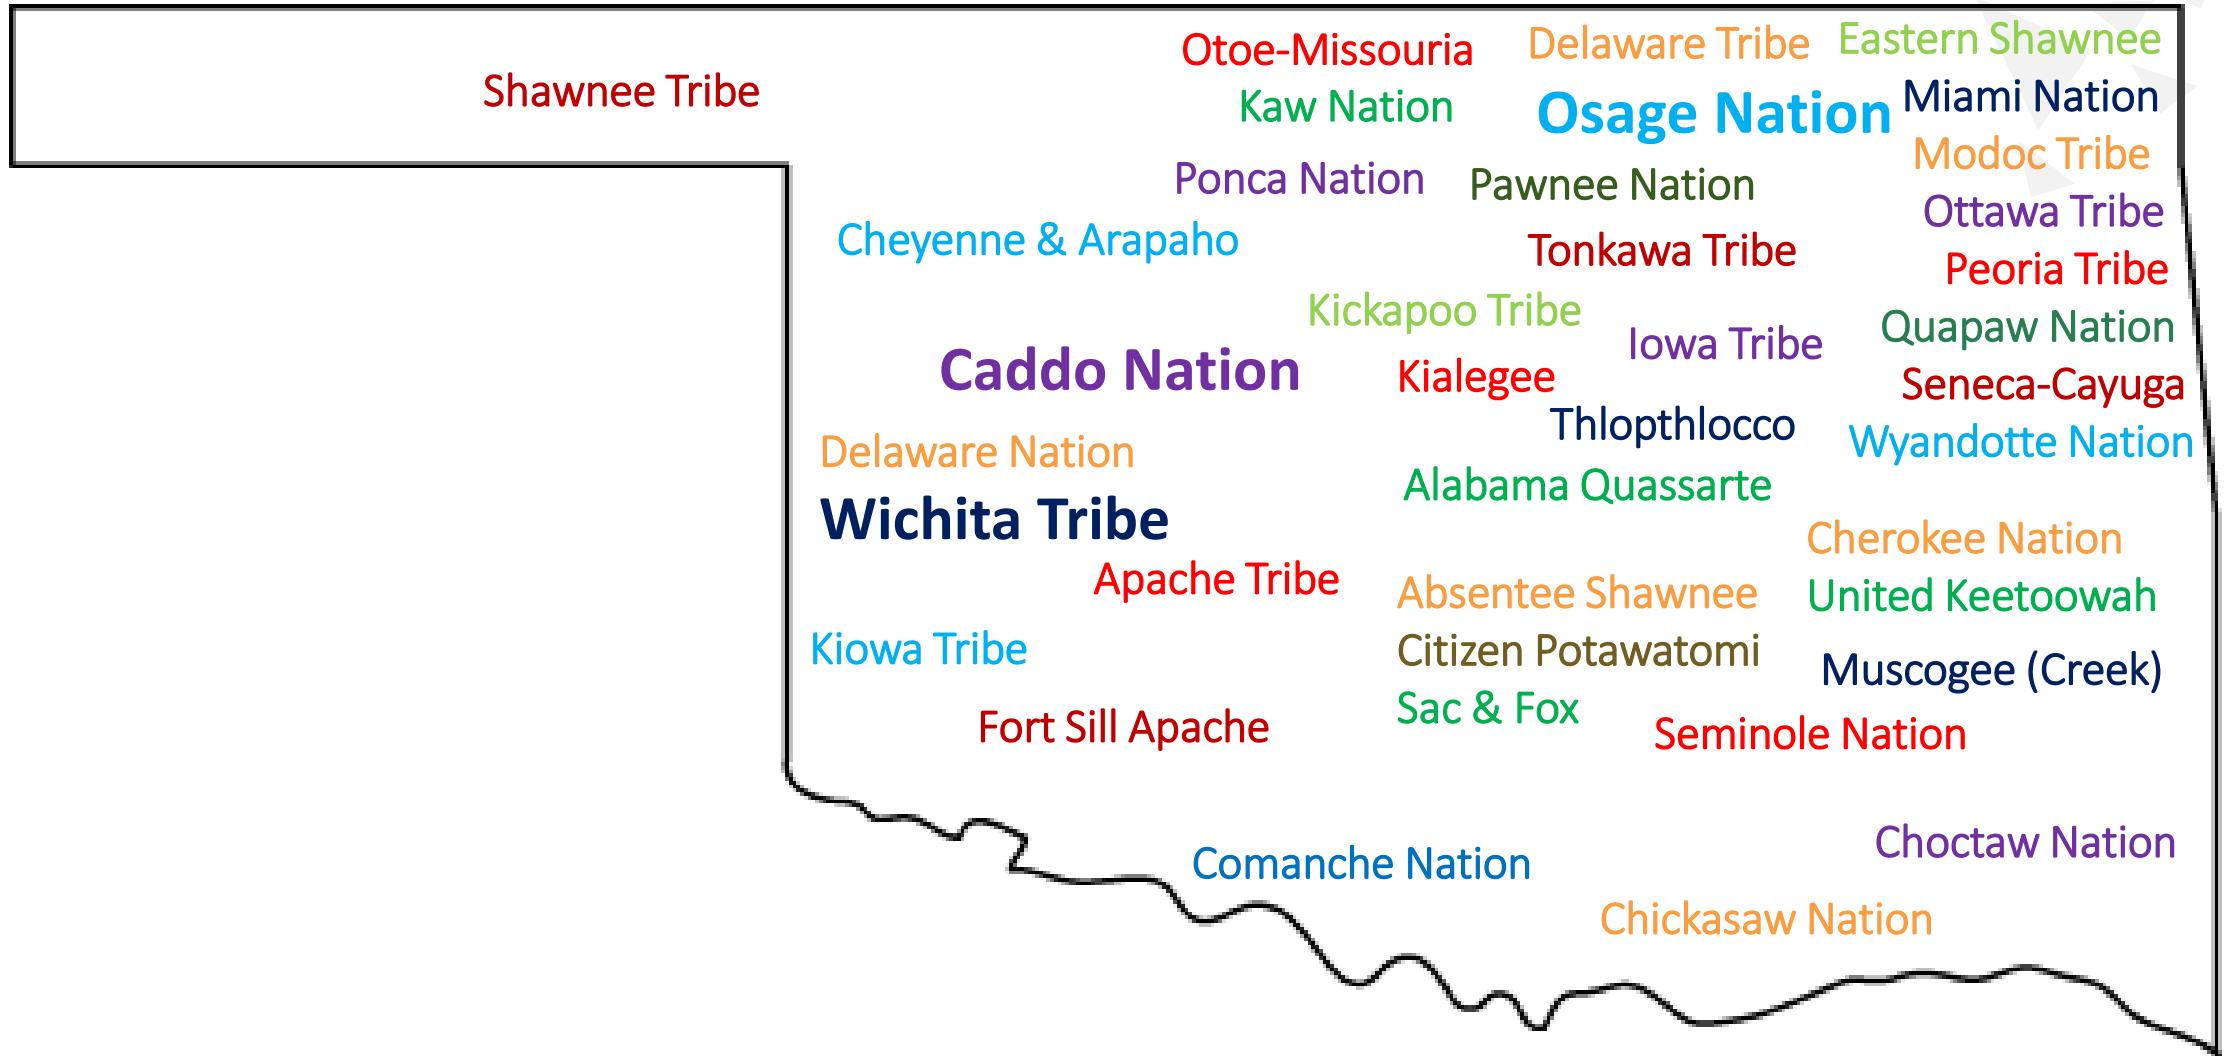

Sharing best management practices

Seeking advice from colleagues

Brainstorming solutions

Elevating emerging issues

Oklahoma's 38 Federally Recognized Tribes

Tribal Coordination

Cooperation

Through partnered projects in tribal communities

Consultation

On the effect of undertakings on properties of traditional cultural or religious significance

Coordination

Of the tribal perspective into transportation infrastructure and project delivery

AASHTO Tribal Liaison Community of Practice

Tribal consultation

NEPA
Section 106
Stakeholder involvement
TCPs

Tribal transportation

Partnering with state DOTs effectively to improve the transportation network

Relationship building

Establishing connections and maintaining relationships

Tribal transit & DOTs

Promoting transportation equity through access to jobs, health care, and education

Civil Rights

Working with Tribal Employment Rights
Offices and DBEs

AASHTO Tribal Liaison Community of Practice

Tribal sovereignty

Respecting tribal sovereignty and balancing overlapping jurisdictions

Funding & finance

Paying for infrastructure and accessing new funding opportunities

Planning for the future

Tribal involvement in development of STIPs and LRTPs

Research & innovation

Using new technologies for the benefit of tribal communities

Safety & public health

Pedestrian facilities (STEP) and injury prevention programs

AASHTO Tribal Liaison Community of Practice

Resiliency & security

Responding to extreme weather and emergency situations

Staffing levels at DOTs

Getting the work done efficiently

Rights of way & easements

Recent changes to BIA regulations for RW on Indian land

Removal & reservations

Acknowledging different tribal histories

Tribal monitoring

Tribal monitoring of construction activities

Thank You

Rhonda S. Fair

405 517 5670

rfair@odot.org

www.odot.org 